

Reliable AI adoption, across your company.

EvolveML gives growing companies and private equity portfolios an AI platform built on their own definitions and business rules, with a consulting team that builds alongside them. Your team gets answers it can check, and your leadership sees what each tool is worth.

WHAT CHANGES FOR YOUR BUSINESS

Decisions on checked answers

Answers on the decisions that matter are checked against your business rules first.

Answers in your own terms

Revenue, margin or pipeline in plain language, built on your definitions.

One platform as you grow

Add functions and teams without a new tool for each.

Value shown, not assumed

Each tool measured against your baseline for 90 days.

HOW IT WORKS

Your data

Email, calendar, documents, CRM, reports, financial data

Your business rules

Terms, measures and rules, written down once

AI drafts

An answer in your company's terms

Quality checks

Tested against your rules; failures do not pass

Your team decides

People act, and approve what goes Live

SECURITY AND CONTROL

- Your company's single sign-on and policies
- Each person's own access, and nothing more
- Hosted by us, or in your own cloud
- Never used to train base AI models; never passed to another customer
- Every agent and application registered, usage reported

WHY EVOLVEML

- Your knowledge stays yours: your definitions and rules belong to you
- Answers you can audit: decisions that matter checked against your rules
- Proven before it is kept: baseline plus your approval
- A team that stays: office hours, build guidance, a named contact

Innovate Platform: your team builds

Deployed in one week. An AI assistant that knows your numbers; builders describe a tool in plain language and use it the same day. Proven tools go Live.

Enterprise: we build it

Our consulting team builds the applications you need, from strategy through delivery and support, in your own environment.
